

Edward Waters College Presents...

SANKOFA

AFRICAN AMERICAN

MUSEUM

ON WHEELS

“Sankofa African American Museum on Wheels” was established in 1995 to be utilized as a tool to teach and educate African Americans about their rich and unique heritage. This “Museum on Wheels” is considered to be one of the foremost collections of African American history readily available and appropriate for all ages and races. Spanning a period of 1860 to the present, “Sankofa” takes audiences on a journey through slavery, the era of King Cotton and days of Emancipation. It also tells the stories of Ida B. Wells, other famous African Americans, the Tuskegee Airman, Dr. Martin Luther King, and our 44th President. It also features numerous inventions.
